

KAHN, SOARES & CONWAY, LLP

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Sean Tannenbaum is Of Counsel to KSC. His concentration is estate planning, trust administration, and real estate law. Sean is admitted to practice before the Central District of California and the Northern District of California.

Sean has substantial experience advising trustees and beneficiaries in both litigation and non-litigation matters, and he regularly counsels clients on tax-efficient strategies for intergenerational wealth transfers.

Sean earned his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School, and graduated summa cum laude from UC Irvine (B.A., English).

Sean is also a proud veteran of the United States Air Force Reserve where he served as a pilot flying the Boeing C-17.

CONTACT

Hanford Office

Telephone: (559) 584-3337

Fax: (559) 584-3348

stannenbaum@kschanford.com

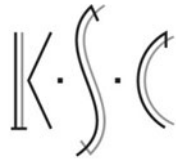

AREAS OF PRACTICE

- Estate Planning & Probate
- Real Estate Law
- Transactional Law

EDUCATION

J.D., Harvard Law School

B.A., English, University of California, Irvine

KAHN, SOARES & CONWAY, LLP

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Negotiated a favorable settlement on behalf of the trustee of a charitable trust in a contentious probate matter that had been pending for over five years, resolving the dispute in under one year and saving the client hundreds of thousands of dollars in additional legal fees.

Advised on the administration of numerous estates exceeding $10 million, including estates involving complex holdings such as closely held businesses, real estate partnerships, and other illiquid assets.

Coordinated with interdisciplinary teams of CPAs, valuation experts, corporate counsel, and financial advisors to ensure efficient administration, compliance, and strategic asset distribution in complex trust and estate matters.